

Built2Last: A Road Map for Inclusive and Equitable Development in Durham

An Update

Andre Pettigrew, Director

Thursday, November 7, 2019

Built2Last: A Roadmap for Inclusive and Equitable Development in Durham

Durham's Built2Last Innovation Lab

Bull City Equitable Development Fund

Bull City Enterprise
Training Center

First Tier

Parent Fund,
includes mission-
aligned investment
activity

Second Tier

Special Fund,
includes investments
that promote shared
economic prosperity
initiatives

Maker's Space

Infrastructure &
Project-Based Finance

Diversity and Supply Chain Management

Entrepreneurial Development

Pitch Competition

Durham Compact

(Organizational Structure)

Engaging Stakeholders

Internal and External Stakeholders: Keeping Them Engaged

A Few Accomplishments to Date

- Secured County Government as a City of Durham Built2Last Partner
- Held Second Set of Roundtable Discussions with Area Educational Leaders such as the Chancellor of North Carolina Central University; Vice President of Duke University; President of Durham Technical Community College; and Durham Public School's Superintendent Mubenga's Designee
- Engaged in Discussions with Executives of Local Financial Institutions (e.g., JP Morgan Chase, SunTrust and Fifth Third Bank)
- Held Multiple Roundtable Discussions with Geoff Durham, President, Durham Chamber of Commerce; Nicole Thompson, President, DDI, Inc.; Helena Cragg, President, LGBTQ Center of Durham; Luis Pastor, President, Latino Credit Union; and Roberta McCullough, Director, The Institute - Women's Business Center of North Carolina

